CAVANAUGH'S CORNER:

Dear Parents;

Good Friday to you. It is sunny and cold, but it is not raining. I am thankful for that. Speaking of being thankful, I am thankful for the following 8th graders who participated in the West Side Speech Contest on Wednesday at Elder High School; Haley Cook, Ella Vatter, Brandon Catanzaro, Carson Telger, Kaylee Finkelstein, and Rose Cooper, All students received either a gold or silver medal. I would also like to thank the following judges. Peter Gibbs, Mrs. Sharlene Finkelstein, Mrs. Julia Glassmeyer, Mrs. Jenny Teeppen, Mrs. Sheehan, and Mr. Steve Burns who gave up their evening to be judges. I appreciate their time and talent. Lastly, I would like to thank Mrs. Sheehan who worked with the students to make sure their speeches went well.

This morning after the communion meditation I had the pleasure of recognizing two of our 8th graders who received the ESAP Butch and Karen Hubert Scholarship Awards. They are Brayden Bass and Eabha Delaney. The Scholarship Program is about recognizing individuals who embody the spirit of giving back and helping others. These students wrote an essay about a time they helped someone when it was not required. They were then chosen from applicants as winners. These students received money towards their tuition, a medal, and a gift card. Congratulations Brayden and Eabha.

Today is the day when school registrations are due. If for some reason you cannot meet that deadline, please call me or email and let me know. It is important we have all fees and paperwork given at the same time. Your family is an important reason why our school is so special. If finances are preventing you from registering, please let me know as we can make arrangements.

Lastly, keep Fr. Jim in your prayers as he will have his heart valve repaired next Tuesday. He has been feeling better and this procedure will continue to improve his health.

Also, please support our Las Vegas Night this Saturday in the gym. There is a flyer attached to this Parent Press with all the details. Proceeds will fund the replacement of the Art Room windows and door. The windows were not replaced when all the school windows were replaced a few years ago and are in desperate need of replacing.

Have a Great Weekend,

Thank You,

Mr. Cavanaugh
